The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators of Australia, East Asia, and Singapore is conducting the Asia Pacific Diploma Course In International Arbitration in Perth, Australia from 28 July 2018 to 5 August 2018. Following the success in Hong Kong 2017 and Singapore in 2016, this pre-eminent tertiary course offers a prestigious globally recognised qualification and is aimed at meeting the increasing demands for accredited arbitrators and arbitration practitioners to resolve cross-border disputes in the Asia Pacific

During an intensive and interactive 9-day program, students will be taught the practice of international commercial arbitration, covering major forms of arbitration and arbitration institutions including the ICC, HKIAC, SIAC and CIETAC, and will gain the ability to appear in or act as an arbitrator or counsel in different contexts. In addition, during the week day afternoon sessions, students will take part in practical group workshops under the guidance of experienced arbitrators and be given practical training addressing a range of problems which may arise in the course of conducting an international arbitration. The course faculty comprises international arbitration experts from across the Asia Pacific and around the world.

On completion of the course, students are eligible to sit the Practice and Procedure examination offered by CI Arb Australia, CI Arb East Asia and CI Arb Singapore in October 2018. Students who successfully pass the Practice and Procedure examination (55%) will be eligible to sit a Module 4 - Award Writing Course and to sit for an Award Writing Examination which will be held in 2019 (dates to be announced soon). Students who pass the Practice and Procedure examination and the Award Writing examination will be awarded a Diploma of International Commercial Arbitration by CI Arb and are able to apply for the Fellow Peer Interview to become a CI Arb Fellow.

COURSE INFORMATION

Diploma in International Commercial Arbitration

The Diploma in International Commercial Arbitration is split into

Two parts: Part 1 - Diploma course (including a Practice and Procedure examination) and Part 2 - Award Writing course (including assignment and examination)

How is Part 1 delivered?

Part 1 is delivered over nine intensive days, with a combination of lectures, tutorials and discussion workshops dealing with international arbitration law, practice and procedure. Part 1 is delivered at the Curtin Law School; Perth Australia starting 28 July 2018 and concludes on 5 August 2018. Lecturing will begin from 9.00 am and ends at 5.15 pm throughout the 9 days. Candidates will be provided with a textbook (Law & Practice of International Commercial Arbitration by Redfern & Hunter, Student Edition) and 4 volumes of reference materials in hard copy which consists Legislation & Conventions, Arbitration Rules, Arbitration Guidelines & CI Arb Practice Guidelines.

How will I be assessed for Part 1?

Candidates are required to sit for one written examination schedule for Three (3) hours closed book examination on international Arbitration Practice and Procedure. The examination is on a pass or fail basis. Candidates must achieve a minimum of 55%. Candidates who fail the examination will be required to re-sit the examination. The examination is closed book however candidates will be allowed to use unmarked copies of the 4 Volumes of Reference Materials provided. Highlighting and underlining is permitted. Results are dispatched to candidates normally eight to twelve weeks from the date of the submission of the assignment or examination.

Candidates will be automatically registered to sit for the examination and will be provided with 3 options of venues to sit for their examination which will be in Melbourne (Australia), Singapore and Hong Kong. It is possible to arrange for examinations to be sat elsewhere, for example, at a CI Arb Branch or a special examination centre. Candidates must specify on the registration form where they would prefer to sit their examination. Candidates who wish to sit an examination at a CI Arb Branch or a special examination centre will be required to pay any additional local charges for invigilation and facilities.

What are the entry requirements?

- Practising lawyers and other professionals who are familiar with legal reasoning and concepts and are involved in arbitration (domestic or international) and who wish to increase their knowledge and understanding of international commercial arbitration.
